

ALL SEEKING NAMES FOR FIRE REFUGEES

All people burned out in the Salem fire are urged to register their names and present addresses with the American Information Bureau now having headquarters in the New and Tremont at No. 102 Essex street, Boston.

This would greatly facilitate the work of the relief committee, getting hundreds of families each day about lost friends and relatives.

Ten Thousand Now Being Fed in the Camp of Refugees

After making a tour of the refugee camps, Edward E. Hicknell of the National Red Cross and Helen Stone of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society, reported that approximately 10,000 fire sufferers were being fed three times a day. These were distributed as follows:

Salem Wilbur camp, 50; Salem Fraternity, 50; Boys' Club, 2,000; Salvation Army, 50; Forest River camp, 2,000; High School, 1,000; Babies' Hospital, 30; baskets of food distributed, 700. The rest of the 10,000 are being fed at the Army.

Today tons of clothing were distributed to the refugees.

SOCIETY GIRLS AND RED CROSS NURSES TO SEGREGATE REFUGEES

Society girls, members of the Red Cross and nurses, are being sent to the refugee camps to segregate by nationalities the 10,000 destitute and homeless refugees.

The society workers were led by Miss Frances H. Curtis of the Boston School Board.

The suggestion will contain mostly French mill workers who have lost everything they owned. This camp will be at Forest River Park.

The Jews will be cared for at the Immigrant Hebrew Aid Society in its building at No. 46 Lafayette street.

All English speaking people will be put wherever they can be fitted in. The English speaking people will be put wherever they can be fitted in.

STAGNANT APPEALS TO STATE

Today when 6,000 men went to work clearing up debris.

The workers today were for the most part men and boys who had lost their homes in the fire. Hands accustomed to handling delicate wool and cotton fabrics, or to process work with other machines, or to some other factory task, today gripped pick handles or shovels and raised blisters on their hands and arms.

STORIES ACTIVE AGAIN.

The stories of eighteen continued to swirl through the city today, though in greatly diminished numbers.

THE BUSINESS DISTRICT.

In the business district the fire and business losses took a deep breath and started over.

WANDERING IN CAMPS.

It was yesterday in the camps for both the militia and the refugees, and everywhere around the city in progress.

Even the women were to be taken to the residence district, where they would be housed in the fire.

There were applicants for the shelter of the refugee camps today—mostly of sleeping in barns, freight sheds and the like.

THUNDER ADDS NEW TERROR.

Fifty of the people reported as sleeping in the city today.
